STANDARD Hybrid Teas

No. 1, $1.00 each; 3 for $2.65; $10.00 per doz.
American Beauty. Large, double, light rose-red.
Ami Quinard. Very dark blackish red; extra fragrant. Medium size.
Better Times. Well-shaped, bright cerise-red blooms, fine for cutting.
Betty Uprichard. Delicate salmon-pink with coppery reverse. Fragrant.
Blanche Mallerin. A beautiful large, well-formed Rose of satiny white. Fine for cutting.
Blaceliff. Bright rose-pink; long, stiff stems.
Caledonia. Snow-white, long-pointed buds.
Charlotte Armstrong. Long, dark pink buds. Beautifully formed double blooms. Plant is strong with dark green foliage.
Christopher Snow. Cherry-red, with old-time fragrance.
Columbia. Lovely rose-pink. Long stems.
Caprice. Large, double open bloom of flame-pink with yellow reverse. Profuse bloomer.
Condesa de Santiago. Orange-red with yellow reverse. Very bushy and free blooming.
Countess Vandal. Salmon-pink shaded copper and gold. Elegant for cutting.
Crimson Glory. Glorious in every way — rich dark crimson color, velvety texture, wonderful fragrance, free-blooming qualities.
Dainty Bess. Single, 5-petaled flowers of soft pink with darker stamens.
Eclipse. Streamlined buds of golden yellow. Strong and healthy.
Edith Neale Perkins. Light orange and salmon-pink. Pointed buds open to semi-double flowers. Very satisfactory.
Editor McFarland. Deep rose-pink, fragrant and well shaped. The color holds well.
E. G. Hill. Another good dazzling scarlet.
Etoile de Hollande. One of the very best of all bright red Roses. Very fragrant, large, semi-double. Hardy and healthy.
Francis Scott Key. Deep pink with lighter reverse. Large and double.
Frau Karl Druschki. Large, double, snow-white. An old favorite.
Golden Charm. Perhaps the best canary-yellow variety. Like Talisman in growth.
Golden Dawn. Bud yellow tipped orange, opening to sunflower-yellow.
Good News. Very large, fragrant, silvery pink with apricot glow in the center.
Grenoble. Bright red flowers on a tall, strong bush.
Heinrich Wendland. Nasturtium-red with deep golden yellow on the reverse side. Fruity fragrance.
K. A. Viktoria. Long, well-formed buds of ivory-white with plenty of fragrance.
K. T. Marshall. Deep rose-pink flushed yellow. Long, strong stem.
Konigin Luise. Snow-white, large and full. A good grower.
Lowell Thomas. A good yellow Rose with about 25 petals arranged in high cupped form. Lightly perfumed. Upright plant.
Luxembourg. Coppery yellow with deeper center. Soft, bronzy foliage.
McGredy's Yellow. A popular yellow with medium-sized blooms.
McGredy's Sunset. Fragrant bloom with chrome-yellow base shading to scarlet and clear, buttercup-yellow reverse.
Mirandy. Large, globular, garnet-red. Vigorous, upright, bushy.
Mrs. Charles Bell. Like Pink Radiance, but lighter.
Mrs. Pierre S. du Pont. Buds reddish-gold; flowers golden yellow, becoming lighter. Low growing.
Night. Dark velvety red. Upright growing.
Paul Neyron. Large bloom, clear pink to rose-pink on long, strong stems.
Peace. The most distinctive Rose in years. Huge yellow buds edged pink, opening to clear yellow flowers that gradually become pinker as they age. No two flowers are ever exactly alike. Tall, vigorous and healthy.
Picture. Perfect pink blooms with rich salmon undertones.
Pink Etoile de Hollande. A pink sport of the famous red Rose, a little darker in color than Pink Radiance.
Pink Radiance. The standard pink Rose. Globular in form, with lighter pink reverse. Very dependable.
Poinsettia. Bright Christmas red blooms, star shaped when fully open.
President Herbert Hoover. Well-shaped buds of orange, rose and gold. Extremely long, strong stems.
Red Radiance. The rose-red form of Pink Radiance. Hardest and most popular of red Roses in the South.
Red Talisman. A bright blood-red form of Talisman, on an upright plant.
Rex Anderson. Perfect form; ivory-white. Very fine for exhibition.

Rome Glory. Very large and double globular bloom, scarlet with cerise reverse. Fragrant.
Rouge Mallerin. Dark red flowers of fine form.
Shell Pink Radiance. Delicate shell-pink bloom shaded soft salmon. Large, double and very fragrant. Abundant bloomer.
Soeur Therese. Long yellow buds tinted orange, opening to pure yellow. One of the best and hardiest of its color.
Talisman. Flame and gold — the first and still one of the most popular bicolors. Upright in growth.
Texas Centennial. Vermilion-red and gold, on very long stems. Fruity fragrance. Tall, vigorous plant.
The Doctor. Very large, silvery pink. Low grower.
White American Beauty. Snow-white, open double bloom. Dark foliage. Vigorous.
Yellow Condesa. Fragrant yellow Rose, especially nice in the bud.
Zulu Queen. Large double, very dark maroon bloom. Fragrant. Vigorous. bushy plant.
